

	Priority Areas of Development Cooperation	GIZ Project	Key Subjects	Project Manager/ Duration
Regional and Global Programmes	Sustainable Economic Development	Trade Facilitation in Central Asia (Tajikistan, Kyrgyzstan, Kazakhstan, Uzbekistan)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Structures improvement for regional and international economic cooperation and trade in Central Asian countries Kazakhstan, Kyrgyzstan, Tajikistan and Uzbekistan. 	Mr. Johannes Knapp 01/2017 – 12/2019 (BMZ)
	Social Development	Professional Education and Training in Central Asia - Fostering Systemic Approaches in Food Processing Sector (Tajikistan, Kyrgyzstan, Kazakhstan, Uzbekistan)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Strengthening regional collaboration in the field of cooperative professional education; Developing national regulatory frameworks for cooperative professional education; Developing & implementing relevant educational programmes based on employers' demands; Strengthening chambers, employers' associations and centers for technology transfer, education and entrepreneurship. 	Mr. Thomas Lux 03/2019-02/2022 (BMZ)
		Central Asian Drug Action Programme (CADAP) (Kazakhstan, Kyrgyzstan, Tajikistan, Turkmenistan, Uzbekistan)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Strengthening the competencies to deal with the drug phenomenon; Development of national and trans-regional competencies by providing policy advice and technical assistance, monitoring of the drugs situation, prevention, drug treatment and harm reduction services; Strengthening of target institutions in providing a more efficient and effective implementation of mandates and greater accountability for action in tackling drug-related problem. 	Mr. Ernest Robello 04/2015-09/2019 (EU CoFi)
	Governance and Democracy	Supporting the Rule of Law in Central Asia (Tajikistan, Kazakhstan, Kyrgyzstan, Turkmenistan, Uzbekistan)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Constitutional task fulfilment of judiciary, legislation and administration to foster economic action. 	Mr. Joerg Pudelka 02/2018-10/2022 (EU CoFi for UZ, KG)
	Sustainable Infrastructure	Transboundary Water Management in Central Asia (+Afghanistan) (Tajikistan, Kyrgyzstan, Kazakhstan, Turkmenistan, Uzbekistan)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Development of competences and management capabilities of regional water management institutions (e.g. of the International Fund for Saving the Aral Sea IFAS); Improvement of institutional capabilities of river area organizations for water management of selected cross-border rivers; Transmission of knowledge and skills to water consumers and local and national administrations; Contribution to integrated water management. 	Ms. Caroline Milow 01/2018-12/2019 (AA CoFi)
	Environment and Climate	Sustainable and Climate Friendly Land Use for Economic Development in Central Asia (Tajikistan, Kirgisisitan, Kasachstan, Turkmenistan, Usbekistan)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Development of a conceptual framework for integrated land management for Central Asia, coordinated with all key actors, to guide regional and national sectoral policies; Dissemination of inclusive, sustainable, climate-sensitive and economically viable land-use approaches, considering climate financing opportunities; 	Mr. Klaus Schmidt-Corsitto 01/2018-11/2020 (BMU/ IKI)

	Priority Areas of Development Cooperation	GIZ Project	Key Subjects	Project Manager/ Duration
			<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Strengthening the core competences of key actors in Central Asia in integrative and sustainable land use and their adaptation to climate change.
		Central Asia Ecosystem-based Adaptation to Climate Change in High Mountain Regions of Central Asia (Tajikistan, Kyrgyzstan, Kazakhstan)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Pilot design and implementation of innovative measures and approaches ecosystem-based adaptation in selected small watershed; Methodical preparation and documentation of experiences for the dissemination of innovation in Central Asia; Initiation of policy dialogue on local and national dialogue platforms for multiplication of ecosystem-based adaptation solutions. 	Mr. Paul Schumacher 05/2015-12/2020 (BMU/IKI)
		Biodiversity and Ecosystems Services in Agrarian Landscapes (Tajikistan, India, Kenya)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Raising the awareness of public and private decision-makers on the importance of biodiversity and ecosystem services as the basis for the economic development of the agrarian sector; Provide practical experience on intersectoral political dialogue and learning platforms; In a small extent, the conservation of biodiversity through the implementation of pilot measures for the restoration of degraded ecosystems. 	Mr. Joerg Lohmann 12/2016-11/2020 (BMU/IKI)
		Technology Based Adaptation to Climate Change in Rural Tajikistan and Kyrgyzstan (Tajikistan, Kyrgyzstan)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Improved geodata management by state institutions in Tajikistan and Kyrgyzstan in the climate adaption area; Implementation of key elements of National Geodata Infrastructure (NGDI) for adopting to Climate Change in Tajikistan and Kyrgyzstan; Improved capacity at district level for use of NGDI geoinformations; Implementation of measures for adaption to Climate Change at local level.	Mr. Klaus-Peter Gross 04/2019-03/2022 (BMZ/DKTI)
	Management Scope	Regional Study and Expert Funds (Tajikistan, Kyrgyzstan, Kazakhstan, Turkmenistan, Uzbekistan)	Realization of targeted technical cooperation actions of smaller extend; Preparation of new projects and studies; Financing of the CIM-Experts.	Mr. Torsten Brezina 06/2005 - 12/2019